LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 20th day of June, 1882.

John H. Imboden, a creditor, secured with others by a certain deed of trust, on or before the 15th day of June, 1882, against Peter Miller, trustee, Warwick P. Miller, trustee, John Kehoe, trustee, Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, constituting the firm of Lister Bros., Benedict J. Burgess, Wm. K. Downing, B. J. Burgess and Wm. K. Downing, of the alleged firm of B. J. Burgess & Co., defendants, in chancery.

Memo. The object of this suit is to enjoin, and restrain Warwick P. Miller, trustee, and Peter Miller, trustee, their employees and agents and all other persons from making sale on July 1, 1882, as advertised in the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, of the lot of ground and warehouses with dock and wharf property attached, lately belonging to Benedict J. Burgess, and situate on the east side of Union, between Prince and Duke streets, under a deed of trust from Burgess to Wise, dated April 15, 1881, to secure $3,400.00 to Warwick P. Miller, trustee; and to marshal the lines on said property and ascertain their priorities; and to obtain a decree setting aside as fraudulent, null and void, a certain deed of trust on a portion of said property and other property, dated March 4, 1882, from B. J. Burgess and Wm. K. Downing, to the alleged firm of B. J. Burgess & Co., to John Kehoe, trustee, to secure the payment of $9,558.00 to Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, partners, doing business in New York city, under the firm name of Lister Bros., which sum is evidenced by the three notes of Burgess & Co. to Lister Bros., viz: one of January 4, 1882, for $2,200.00, at 60 days, with interest; one of December 22, 1881, for $3,663.50, at four months, with interest; and one of December 22, 1881, for $3,695.50, at eight months, with interest.

The defendants, Warwick P. Miller, John Kehoe and Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, comprising the firm of Lister Bros., not having entered their appearance and given security, according to the act of Assembly and the rules of the said court, and appearing by an affidavit that they are non-residents of this State, it is ordered that the said defendants appear here within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. Roman Cruelty.

[From the Saturday Review.]

The games of the Roman Colosseum, which, according to Juvenal, had become as much necessities of life to the people as their daily bread, supplies of itself a most remarkable illustration of the particular phase of human nature. That in an advanced period of material civilization spectacles whereof the one grand interest consisted in the elaborate and wholesale torture and carnage of men and animals should not only have been tolerated with scarcely a protest for centuries, but should have formed the chief and indispensable amusement of both sexes and all classes of the population, including the highest—this appears at first sight to modern thinkers a moral fact almost incredible in its atrocity. And so firm, moreover, was their hold on popular sympathy that they lasted long after the conversion of the empire to Christianity. Constantine, to be sure, issued an edict suppressing the gladiatorial shows, but it was suffered to remain a dead letter, and it was not until nearly a century later, when the Asiatic monk Telemachus leaped into the arena and separated the combatants at the cost of his own life—he was stoned to death by the indignant spectators—that these games were finally abolished. Something may be due to the religious origin of the custom, which is commonly alleged to have sprung out of a rite of human sacrifice offered at the tombs of great men, though some scholars, like Mommsen, deny the existence of human sacrifice at Rome. Later on motives of policy conspired to sustain the practice, both as a means of keeping up the military spirit of the people and as offering the sole opportunity under a despotic

Emperor for the thousands of citizens then assembled in the presence of their sovereign and his Ministers to present petitions and make known their grievances. Still these atrical entertainments such as the Greeks delighted in would have answered the latter purpose quite as well, but for appreciation such refined amusements these ghastly orgies of blood quite unfitted the Roman populace. And it is a curious fact noted by a distinguished modern writer that, as different kinds of vice which might appear to have no mutual connection do yet act and react on one another, so here the intense gra-ving after excitement engendered and gratified by gladiatorial combats served to stimulate the taste for such orgies of sensuality as are described by historians like Tacitus and Suetonius. And hence not only was Hercules burned on the stage, not in effigy but in the person of a condemned criminal, but the deeds of gods and heroes were represented, an Juvenal says, to the life. Nor can it be questioned—and it is in order to illustrate that terrible lesson that we have referred to the subject here—that the gladi-

Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions sold to be just as good. For Diet, ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. For sale by all dealers.
